Pentecost Sunday
 May 20, 2018

First Reading: Acts 2:1-11

The miraculous Pentecost event, as presented by St. Luke, is rich in drama and literal "wind and fire-works." The sudden gift to the Apostles of being able to be understood in many languages clearly shows the presence of the Holy Spirit empowering the nascent Church.

Second Reading: I Corinthians 12:3b-7, 12-13

Paul responds to the Corinthians' problem of competitiveness in their community, which is harming their unity. He tells them that all spiritual gifts bring benefits in different ways. He uses the analogy of the human body and its various parts working in harmony.

Gospel: John 14:15-6, 23b-26

Jesus makes a set of promises to all believers. He also tells them that the Father will be sending another Advocate to them, namely the Holy Spirit. He in turn will instruct the Church, guiding her to keep the message Jesus brought intact throughout history.

An Appeal from Fr. Thadeus, your Pastor

Dear Members and supporters of St. Boniface Parish,

Hope you are enjoying the spring/summer time. Thank you for your kind support to me personally and to our church.

I thought it is time that I give you some updates about our church finances.

Here I am asking you to prayerfully consider an increase in your Sunday offering to start as soon as possible due to the following reasons:

Within the last couple of years many benevolent and dedicated members of our church have passed away to Rest in the Lord.

Also several of the committed parishioners have moved elsewhere for obvious reasons.

I thank all of you who are staying and wholeheartedly supporting our church by attendance, volunteering, prayers and generous financial offerings in different ways.

Here is a snap shot of our financial status; just the negative side FYI:

In the year 2016- 2017 (Sept to Aug) we had a deficit of $22,000

Since Sept 2017 up to April this year, there is a net loss of $58,000

In the current year 2017-2018 (Sept to Aug) it is projected that we will face an added up deficit of $73,000

Good news:

I have an offer from St. Mary's group of an extra annual increase of $20,000 which will be of great help.

In these difficult times, I humbly ask you to do your best to support our churches viability.

Yours in Jesus,

Fr. Thad, your pastor
